

LETTER OF THE DAY

Kindness on anniversary

ON JULY 21, 1969, Neil Armstrong took that small step and the entire world watched.

On that day also, my wife Dell and I began our business servicing TVs etc from our home at Rangeville.

On that very morning, prior advertising brought a phone call for a repair from Laurie Atzeni and his wife, our first customers. We were in business. That business morphed through repairs, retail and rental until we sold it to retire five years ago.

Trading now as The Rental Warehouse in Wylie Street the new owners, Darren and Janice Klein, together with their wonderful staff Kellie, Andrew and Sussana, remembered the significance of the date for us and invited us to afternoon tea to celebrate at Wylie Street.

What can you say to such

an act of kindness as that?
Go and grow in the way you all deserve.
